

St Peter's Future

We are very pleased to announce that Revd Paul Mundy, Vicar of Newick, has been appointed Priest in Charge at St Peter's. His licensing will be on Sunday 17th January at 2.30pm. Bishop Will Hazelwood will officiate. It may be that this will be just half a dozen attendees, in which case a full service may happen later. Dedication of the building works will now be at a later date.

From February Father Martin will continue to take services for us on 1st and 4th Sundays, and Paul will do the second and fifth Sunday each month (the latter alternating with Newick). We will try to get cover for the third Sunday or hold a Morning Prayer. Of course this is all subject to when we re-open for worship.

The builders will be continuing from 6th Jan so hopefully all the work will be completed by the time we return.

Not much else to report, just to say be sensible, stay safe and keep well.
