

London Marathon October 2nd 2022

Once upon a time, Chris Peskett taught for a few years in an Anglican Mission school in rural Zimbabwe, which she and others still support through a charity they set up. This year, Chris's niece, Catrin Komor, has been given a guaranteed place in this year's Marathon, to raise money to help needy girls at that school complete their vital secondary education. This is a cause that we have supported for several years with a portion of St Peter's Christmas collections. Catrin is not a natural runner, and this is a huge commitment for her! If you feel able to help boost her sponsorship, by even just a very small amount, please contribute via this link:

Alternatively, you can also give Chris cash, or a cheque made out to 'Children First International', who have given Catrin the free place. Thank you very much.

Artwave at St Peter's

St Peter's Church and The Reading Room are hosting local 'Artwave' Exhibitions on the weekends of 10th/11th and 17th/18th September. These exhibitions showcase a group of contemporary women artists: Julie Annis, Katherine Fleming, Lucy Faulke, Rebecca Lucas and Araminta Caderwaller. In their work, each responds in their unique way to the themes and energies of their lives and the spaces they inhabit.

The exhibitions are open to everybody from 1.00 till 5.00 on the 11th, 17th and 18th September.

Entry is free, and refreshments will be available.

VOLUNTEERS:- More volunteers for the Grantham Close run on Sundays would be appreciated.

Hello, everyone!

I am hoping that all our volunteers who supported Aquatastic holiday club are now fully recovered from their 3 days of full on activities with 64 children. Due to the daily water activities which concluded each day, logistics were slightly more complex this year and the additional water element of nearly 4 hours of rain on the Thursday morning added to further complications of needing a plan B. The club was a great success and the children were given the opportunity to consider Jesus' relationship with water through three Bible accounts delivered by Rev Sam in child friendly language, which encouraged the children to learn more about the nature of Jesus and how this could be applied to their own lives. Thank you so much to all the volunteers from Barcombe, Chailey and Newick Churches for your awesome enthusiasm and love shown through during the preparation, running and clear up of Aquatastic 2022.

Our taster session of what takes place at a typical Free@4 service was held during the 10 o'clock service on Sunday 4 September and approached the theme of forgiveness. It was a joyous yet thoughtful service which included reenacting the parable of the unforgiving servant, reciting Ephesians 6:22 with the inclusion of sign language and dissolving denture tablets in white wine vinegar. A massive thank you to both volunteers and congregation who took part in the service with enthusiasm. It would be wonderful if Free@4 was an intergenerational experience and all members of the congregation are invited along as an encouragement to local families.

As many of you are now aware, I resigned from my role of "Interparish children and families Mission Initiator" in July due to an increase in hours in my teaching job. I am delighted, however, to be continuing to engage with children and families in a new role working with Newick and Chailey Churches. On Wednesdays I am continuing to lead back to back collective worship assemblies in Newick and Chailey Primary schools, lunchtime clubs at both schools and then resuming my volunteer role at NYC with the Year 7s. I shall also be continuing to coordinate the Free@4 Family Service at Chailey St Peter's Church every 1st Sunday and Owls Club every 3rd Sunday at Newick Church.
