

Following on from the amazing success of our run last year, myself and my friend Kerry will be attempting the London Half Marathon on Sunday 2nd April. Thanks to everyone's kindness and generosity last year we raised over £1000 for Chestnut Tree House, and this year we are running for the NSPCC. If anyone would support us for this amazing charity our justgiving page is below, or come and find Mum after a service if that's easier. Thank you so much, Hannah

St George's Day Fete. The church is running a stall at the bonfire society fete on 22nd April. The plan is to do a 'sweets and treats' tombola. Any donations towards this would be appreciated. Sweets, chocolates, biscuits, small bought cakes etc.

ISOLATED AND LONELY Would you be willing to act as an advocate for the isolated and lonely in any of the following Chailey areas, North Chailey, Chailey Green or South Chailey? The idea is to be a contact for anyone in the above situation who may need help, to connect them with others and provide support and co-ordination. Contact cards could be issued to local shops, surgeries and public houses with your contact number on for anyone who may wish to reach you. Please speak to Teresa or Chris if you feel you can help.
