CRAFT FAIR

Fingers crossed this will still go ahead. We have 18 stalls, which is encouraging, We would appreciate promises for cakes as we will have a Pete's Pantyr stall, as well as providing refreshments. Any garden produce too, and the flower ladies are making some flower arrangements to sell. Donations of children's toys and raffle prizes also appreciated. We have a donation of £50 as first prize in the raffle.

THANK YOU to Anthony and Philippa for making a great job of tidying up the pathway to the church for the wedding yesterday.

Whether attending Sunday services or not, you need your church and your church needs you. It is an important building in your village, it is there when you need it for weddings, funerals and baptisms. However it doesn't maintain itself and we are due a quinquennial inspection this year when we will no doubt require reparative work. This in turn costs money. We appreciate that it appears we are always asking for money but the fact remains if we are to keep a working church in the village we are always going to need money.

Have you considered giving regularly once a month to the church? Maybe you do already but have not increased your giving for a while. Have you thought how leaving an amount in your will as a legacy would help? Even the importance of just making a will. All food for thought. We will be following much of this up in the coming months.
