Dear residents of Chailey,

'For everything there is a season, and a time for every matter under heaven: a time to be born, and a time to die.' Ecclesiastes 3:1-2.

I know this scripture well and I believe it. When I was thirteen something happened to me that really should have changed my life. It didn't then, but many years later it did. I was living in Germany with my parents and going to School there. During one of my School terms, I became ill and for a while the illness was a mystery. I knew from the concern on my parents face that it was serious. Eventually the diagnosis came, I had contracted typhoid. I was to have no contact with anyone and I was admitted to RAF Wegberg hospital and put in a quarantine ward used for infectious diseases and there I stayed. I deteriorated and my parents were warned that the next 48hrs were critical.

That night as I lay, I could hear the radio playing in the background and I heard Petula Clarke singing 'Downtown.' I knew that I was in the present and wasn't hallucinating or dreaming. There were no harps or angelic voices, only Petula! Then I saw out of the corner of my eye and standing by my left shoulder, a figure. It was a man, I couldn't see his face, just his robe and I knew it was Jesus, even though I was a non believer. He told me that I couldn't die in the room that I was in, but that I had to find room 6 and go there to die. I had been in bed for weeks and had lost weight and was unsteady on my feet. I made a few steps out of the room, but fell over in the corridor. The RAF corporal who was my medic found me and picked me up, as he did, he shouted in my face, 'if you get out of bed again, I will tie you to the bed.' As he shouted, a drop of his spit landed on my lip and 50 years on, I can still feel it. I was just a child.

I have hardly ever shared this story and I didn't tell my parents, so why am I telling it now? Well recently someone said to me, 'I don't believe in God, but if I saw Him I might.' Well, I saw Him. I didn't suddenly believe in Him because I saw Him. I didn't NOT believe, it just didn't change my life, except, I would like to think, that getting out of bed to go and die, gave me the fight that I needed to live. Daisy has a wonderful faith and doesn't need to see God to believe in Him. She has seen from the tragedy of her previous life God's provision of a wonderful education and new life. She knows she has a safe, secure and loving home with us now. She goes to a christian group at her School and takes friends with her. They invariably say 'I won't believe in God until I see Him. She always replies "well my Gran has and she didn't." It wasn't until years and years later when my marriage was in crisis and we were on the verge of divorce that God revealed Himself to us again and we invited Him into our lives, because we had made such a mess of it ourselves and we needed His help.

It is an extraordinary privilege, as well as a heavy responsibility, to be invited to order our lives in line with God's will for each one of us. If we accept that, our ultimate happiness is in obeying the will of God, discerning God's path will lead to that ultimate happiness. He came into our lives and we submitted to Him and He turned our chaos into His perfect peace. He has guided us and kept us in the most miraculous way, we've been together now for 50 years. I don't know why it took 26 years from that first encounter for me to become a christian, probably because God doesn't come charging into our lives, we have to be ready and willing to invite Him in. All I know is that God's timing is perfect and all His ways are just. Sometimes we just have to trust the unseen. I know He has always been beside me. Don't wait until you are dying, to search for God. He's waiting for you. Ask Him in, you don't even have to "mess up" to invite Him into your life.

I love the next piece of writing and include in it the Miller-Maskell's "ten commandments."

The man whispered "God speak to me." And a meadow lark sang.

But the man did not hear.

So the man yelled "God speak to me." And the thunder rolled across the sky

But the man did not listen.

The man looked around and said. " God let me see you." And a star shone brightly.

But the man did not see.

So the man shouted. "God show me a miracle." And a life was born.

But the man did not notice.

So the man cried out in despair. "Touch me God, and let me know you are here."

Whereupon God reached down and touched the man. But the man brushed the butterfly away and walked on.

Concert, St. Peter's Church

We are delighted to announce that our new organist, Andrew Rees, along with his choir, 'Coro Nuovo', will be holding a concert at St. Peter's on Saturday March 7th at 7.00pm.

'Coro Nuovo' are a relatively new choir of approximately 40 to 60 singers, based in Haywards Heath. They will be performing an exciting programme of British folk songs, music from Carousel and My Fair Lady, as well as some opera and some religious choruses.

We look forward to welcoming them for the first time. Tickets are £10 and can be obtained from David Barnes ( 01825 722574), Nicola Lack (01825 721107) or the Parish Office (01825 722286). The cost on the door will be £12.

Refreshments will be available.

Chailey And District Horticultural Society

The Society is hosting an afternoon tea and information meeting at The village Hall on Saturday 7th Feb between 2.30pm and 5pm. It is free and all are welcome: old and young, gardeners, cooks and those with skills in handicrafts. We would like it to be a two way event so the committee can learn what the society might do to generate more interest and all suggestions will be welcome.

February is the month to finish pruning apples, pears, currants and gooseberries. On currants remove all old growth down to ground level to encourage new shoots. With gooseberries the idea is to open up the centre of the bush to make it cup shaped so remove crossing branches and those growing towards the centre. Outside growth should be shortened by about a third.

Chit seed potatoes in a light but frost free place [ using egg boxes is a good idea ]. It is a little late for garlic but shallots can still be planted and it is a good idea to start them off in a 7cm pot in a warm and light place before planting out. The same can be done with onion sets.

For those that like to grow from seed now is the time to plant greenhouse tomatoes and aubergine [ which need a long growing season ] in a propagator. Money maker is a good variety of both tomato and aubergine though perhaps the best greenhouse tomato variety is Shirley; producing medium sized early ripening fruit.

Chailey Youth Group

CYG kicks off 2015 with a fab evening planned on 30th January. Young people from Chailey and surrounding villages are invited to enjoy the next few months of activities and outings including ice skating and laser quest.

CYG will sadly be looking for a new chairman as Gemma Kybert steps aside to run the charity Oscar's Wish Foundation in memory of her baby boy born sleeping in November 2014. Gemma started the club 11 years ago in March and has enjoyed every minute of running and organising the events for young people. It is with the greatest sadness that she even had to consider stepping down but wants to see the club to continue with lots of fresh ideas. This opportunity opens up the great opportunity to connect with young people and offer a great voluntary service to the youth.

Sadly Tracey Gunes- Gemma's mum also has decided after many many years it is time to spend the many hours she spends dedicating time to CYG with quality time with her 2 foster children and two adopted children. Tracey was finding it increasingly hard to find Childcare for her children while she volunteered at CYG and it was becoming too expensive to pay someone to care for her children while she volunteered. Tracey has been a dedicated member of the CYG committee and has offered countless skills to help our club flourish.

It is a turning point for CYG to find a new dedicated team of people to take the club forward. If you might be interested in getting involved please do contact me on gemmaKybert@yahoo.co.uk

I look forward to hearing from you.

Gemma Kybert, Chairperson

Chairman: Cllr. Don Cranfield (01825 722651)

Clerk: Mrs Vera Grainger (Tel 01444 831453) (normally available 9.30am - 2.30pm Monday to Thursday)

Email: chaileypc@btinternet.com

Parish Office: Scaynes Hill Village Centre, Lewes Road, Scaynes Hill, West Sussex RH17 7PG.

The office is open to the public on Tuesdays between 12.30 and 1.30pm and Thursdays 10.00am to 11.00am.

Reading Room bookings: contact the Clerk.

Village Information Point

The Village Information Point sessions are held on Friday mornings at the Coffee Stop, Free Church, South Chailey. In February sessions will be held on 13th and 27th February between 10.00 and 12.00.

Chailey Neighbourhood Plan: The Parish Council has applied to Lewes District Council for Chailey village to be recognised as a Neighbourhood; this is an essential preliminary to writing the Plan and an answer is expected within six weeks.

In the interim a Steering Group was constituted at our Planning meeting on January 6th.

with seven members (three Councillors) volunteering their services and representing North and South Common areas. The Group met on January 8th to get formalities under way, so that we can move ahead.

The Group's thinking is that we shall need four focus groups – and Yes! we are looking for members of those groups:

- Consultation & Communication
- Environment & Housing
- Local Economy & Transport
- Community facilities.

The Plan is intended to profile our village and to state how we want it to develop up to 2030. Are you interested to join one of the focus groups?

Please contact Vera Grainger now.

What qualifications do you need?- an interest in your village and views on what will improve our experience of living here.

You can be a recent or long-standing resident, young or young at heart, you can work or have a business within the village or travel to work outside the village. We need a range of views to help develop the plan effectively.

Have you thought about becoming a Parish Councillor?

Local council elections are due to be held on 7th May this year. If you've never been to a Parish Council meeting before, you may be forgiven for thinking that Parish Councillors are a group of (probably older) people who meet now and then in a local meeting room. If, however, you live in a community where something 'big' has happened – such as a contentious planning application – you'll know that when people in the community need support and guidance, it is that same group of people in the meeting room that they will turn to. By becoming a Parish Councillor you become someone your community will look to for help, guidance and support – a community leader with the power to influence decisions for the benefit of the people you serve. Seeing your community change for the better, as a result of decisions you have helped make, is something that can give you a sense of achievement and pride.

How Much Time Does It Take Up? The Council meets once a month for the Council meeting, to which members of the public are also invited. Meetings may last two hours, depending on what's on the list of items to discuss. The Council also has a Planning Committee which meets once a month.

How Long Does a Parish Councillor Serve For? Once elected, Parish Councillors sit on the Council for a maximum of four years. If they then want to stay in the post they can stand for re-election. It doesn't mean that you have to stay for four years, if you find it's not for you or you can no longer meet the commitment you can stand down.

Am I Eligible to Be a Parish Councillor? To stand for election on a Parish Council, you must:

- be a UK or Commonwealth citizen, or;
- be a citizen of the Republic of Ireland, or;
- be a citizen of another Member state of the European Union;
- be at least 18 years old.

To be eligible to stand for an election for a particular parish, you must:

- be an elector of the parish, or;
- for the whole of the previous 12 months have occupied (as owner or tenant) land or other premises in the parish, or;
- during the previous 12 months have worked in the parish (as your principal or only place of work), or;
- for the whole of the previous 12 months lived in the parish or within three miles of the parish boundary.

You may but don't have to be connected to a political party. The current Councillors are independent, with no political party affiliation. If you do become a Parish Councillor you will have to sign up to the Code of Conduct.

Don't Take Our Word for It! The best way to find out what it's like to be a Parish Councillor is to talk to someone who's doing it now. Go along to a Parish Council meeting, speak to one of the Councillors and find out what they think of the job.

Interested? If you want to become a Parish Councillor there are two things you need to do: get yourself nominated and get voted in at the election – the first much easier than the second! For further details, please contact the Parish Clerk

Diary Reminder: A Planning & Environs Committee Meeting will be held on Tuesday 3rd February. The next Council meeting will be held on 17th February; both meetings held in the Reading Room at Chailey Green starting at 7.30pm. Members of the public are welcome to attend.

Chailey Parish Council

UNDERSTANDING JARGON – AFFORDABLE HOUSING

Many families understand the bureaucratic language attached to housing, so forgive me if you know this subject inside-out and I apologise for this lengthy note. But for those in Chailey who find it a bit baffling - I hope the following makes some sense and is helpful.

In thinking about the housing market it is helpful to recognize the distinction between housing demand, housing need and housing requirement. Some confusion arises in around the use of the term 'affordable housing'.

- Housing Demand is the quantity of housing of the type and quality that households both want and can afford to buy or rent in the open market without subsidy. Housing demand thus takes into account both preference and ability to pay.

- Housing Need is the quantity of the type and quality necessary to house those households currently lacking their own housing, or living in housing which is unsuitable or inadequate and who can not afford to buy or rent suitable housing in the open market. So housing need takes account of those without adequate housing who are unable to resolve their situation without assistance or state subsidies.

- Housing requirement encompasses both housing demand and housing need, and is therefore the quantity of housing necessary for all households to have access to suitable housing, irrespective of the ability to pay. Put simply, it is the amount of housing needed to accommodate the population at appropriate minimum standards as defined by government or in local (Lewes District Council) policies.

- Some confusion arises in housing policy around the use of the term 'affordable housing'.

- Market housing where the purchaser, owner or tenant pays the full market cost or rent without subsidy. That means low cost – starter market housing and is not considered for planning purposes as affordable housing.

- Social Rented Housing where housing is allocated on the basis of need rather than the ability to pay and rents are set below market levels. The development of new social rented housing is dependent on the subsidy of development costs either from public funds or cross subsidy based on the land value associated with the awarding planning permission. The social, subsidised rented housing sector comprises Council and Housing Association for rent.

- Intermediate Housing Shared ownership, (New Build HomeBuy) government incentives to assist those that are ineligible for social, subsidised rented housing but cannot afford market housing. For instance: part buy/part rent basis means you can buy shares worth between 25% and 75% of the property's market value and you pay a subsidised rent on the remaining share. Shared ownership provides an important bridge across the housing divide, allowing hard-working families on modest incomes to find good quality homes. Shared ownership is often a corner stone of aspirations for a better life and can help young people tremendously.

On January 27th I will be attend the Independent Examination Hearing for the Lewes District Council and South Downs National Park Authority. An Inspector will consider the soundness of the Local Plan. I am the only Lewes District Councillor that submitted an individual paper to the Inspector. It's important that I try to reflect and represent the views of the residents living in Chailey. The majority of people I speak with want well-designed, attractive housing that includes housing for families – modest housing for young, first-time buyers and the elderly - a good mix for our village. Few I speak with want high-rise flats and over-development in a rural environment. The subject I have been called to discuss is: Housing policies throughout the District. The Inspector conducts the Examination and makes the final decision.

ART IN ANCIENT EGYPT

The Art of Ancient Egypt must be one of the most instantly recognizable, rather static, formal and stiff. However it is of course important to remember that the majority of these works were never intended to be seen! And if they were dire consequences, usually death, would be the result, who has not heard of Tutankhamen? Our lecturer Lucia Gahlin will show us with wonderful illustrations how that art, through pyramids, magic rituals, mummies, pharaohs, dreams and oracles, was developed.

Lucia not only works in the Petrie Museum of Egyptian archaeology in London but visits Egypt several times a year accompanying study tours and trips and working on the famous Tell el-Amarna site registering small finds. She is the author of 'the Egyptian World' and 'Egypt Gods Myths and Religion' and could hardly be better qualified to give us the most interesting lecture.

Come and enjoy what should be a really lovely lecture. Visitors are always most welcome and the cost is £7 on the door and as always there will be a chance to talk to the speaker. If you require any further information please ring Marjorie Blunden on 01825 723250.

St Peter's

The school has been closed for the Christmas holiday so there is little to report this month. As usual the children have settled down well to their lessons, we have had some decorating in parts of the school and Mesdames Garbutt and Zuniga have returned to work after maternity leave.

School

I was interested to read, in last month's magazine about the vicar's cramped quarters when he was a curate. I was reminded of the time when my brothers and I lived with our parents in married quarters provided by the factory where my Dad worked. That was fine except for Saturdays. My Mum who worked as a school dinner lady had a reputation for producing an excellent breakfast. If I didn't get home before my brothers and their friends there were no beds left, not even a sofa or armchair. I spent many a Saturday night sleeping on the floor. Nevertheless I was still up in time to join my Methodist youth club friends for morning service.

Bill Clarke. Tel. 01273 400131

In January we welcomed Mr. Chris Jenkins who gave us a fascinating talk about "Behind the scenes at Wakehurst gardens". Although this was different from the published "talk" we found it interesting, put across by Chris' passion for his subject. Our thanks to Mr. William Coleman, Chailey W.I. friend when technology is required !

theWI
INSPIRING WOMEN

In February our speaker will be Mr Colin Snook with his subject " Inspired Grandad Tramps Around great Britain". We welcome any prospective new members and visitors at a small charge of £2. Our meeting on 3rd February will begin at 7.45pm. The following month we welcome back Mr. Rupert Matthews this time talking about "Jack the Ripper". As always in the village hall.

Not only do we have our Annual East Sussex Federation W.I. meeting on 25th March, in Eastbourne, but in the village hall we will be holding a "Jumble Sale" on Saturday 28th March.

Chailey Commons Society

The commons are in their winter guise and the bracken is laid flat by the rain and frost. It is amazing how the look of the commons can be so different at this time of year.

The Exmoor ponies are busy on both Red House and Lane End and the three on Lane End have been joined by another one from Ashdown Forest. His name is Cuthbert and he seems to have settled in well. The Exmoor ponies are provided by the Sussex Pony Grazing and Conservation Trust and are located on several sites in East Sussex in addition to the ones on our commons. You can see for yourself lots of information about them and how they are managed by going to their website – sussexponygrazing.co.uk. Here you can read about why these ponies are used on heathland and the benefits of conservation grazing.

To follow this up we will be having a special walk in May with the Grazing Co-ordinator, Monty Larkin, who will show us the ponies and tell us about the work of the Trust. Make a note of the date – Saturday 16th May at 2.00.p.m. starting at Romany Ridge car park.

Our indoor Meeting on Thursday February 19th will be in the Chailey Village Hall as usual at 7.30.p.m. when we will have a talk on the 'National Nature Reserves in East Sussex, past, present and future' from Roy Hale. Do join us and visitors welcome. For further information visit our website – www.chaileycommons.org.uk

Chailey Parish Hall

You will see from the typical calendar of hires for the month (see opposite page), that the hall is widely used. We do have spaces for parties which are popular at weekends. Do ring Lorna on 07813 319895 if you wish to hire the hall.

We have recently had boiler problems which has been a huge inconvenience. At last a new boiler engineer realised that three radiators were slightly leaking which was enough affect the boiler. We do not anticipate any more problems but please contact me if you find any problems at the hall. I will be grateful.

Chailey News Distribution

A belated Happy New Year and many thanks to our 45 distributors who deliver the magazine to Chailey residents during the year. There is very little turnover during the year which makes the task that much easier.

I do have 3 rounds that need a new distributor and they are:-

1) Along Station Road (A272) from the end of Hazeldene Road to include Coldharbour Lane and Birchetts on the other side of the road. 37 magazines and it takes about 45 mins to do.

2) Bevern Bridge area (A275) in South Chailey 25 magazines and it takes about 35 minutes.

3) From Pellingbridge (A272) upto the bend at Holford Manor Lane both sides of the road 31 magazines takes 40 mins.

If you feel like a little monthly exercise by volunteering to take on one of these rounds it will be greatly appreciated. You don't have to be a Churchgoer or live on the round, anyone can do it so please give me a ring.

Please also read through the advertisers at the back of the magazine there are 9 newcomers this year and will remain full up until renewals are invited in October/November.

best wishes

The Hundred-foot Journey is the story of Hassan Haji, a boy from Mumbai who embarks, along with his boisterous family, on a picaresque journey first to London and then across Europe, before they ultimately open a restaurant opposite a famous chef, Madame Mallory (Helen Mirren), in the remote French village of Lumiere. A culinary war ensues, pitting Hassan's Mumbai-toughened father against the imperious Michelin-starred cordon bleu, until Madame Mallory realizes that Hassan is a cook with natural talents far superior to her own.
