Dear Friends,

What an amazing week with two wonderful leavers’ services and the start of the summer holidays. Thank you to everyone who sponsored our leavers’ bibles it really is such a blessing to send our young people off on their next adventures with God’s word as their guide.

And this weekend we have some very special birthdays and anniversaries to celebrate so the Good News continues.

I’ve got a question for reflection in this week’s Ramblings: If you could think about how, you speak and act in the places and spaces you spend most of your week.

What looks like wheat?
What looks like weeds?
What do you want to keep, and what do you want to get rid of?

We often speak of "first impressions" when meeting someone, and often decide quickly whether we think we like them or not. The Gospel reading seems to suggest that we should reserve judgement because sometimes only time reveals the true nature of a person or situation.

The "weeds" that Jesus speaks of were a type of plant that looked identical to wheat until it came harvest time. Then not only did they look different, but they also tasted different. The tares were poisonous to humans because of the parasitic growths they contained - ideal for the enemy, the Devil, to use. Jesus seems to be saying that we shouldn't go in for premature judgement and harvesting, because if we did, some of the wheat may be pulled up with the weeds. He was clearly more concerned with the growth of the good seed than rooting out the bad.

Nurture of the good seed was His principal concern. But, whilst He says there will be a time when time when the good and evil people will be ultimately separated (and the good rewarded and evil condemned), He also allows for the fact that people can and do change over time.

God has not finished with any one of us yet, and certainly not given up on us whatever we may think. He has faith in us - and we need to have that same faith in others.
To see people as Christ does, for what they can become, not just for what they seem to be now.
To allow ourselves and others to be released, changed, and transformed by the Spirit as we live by the Spirit.
According to Paul a process that sometimes takes time and requires patience.

Finally, what one practical thing will you say or do this coming week to bear more wheat (and destroy more weeds)?

Have a good week, be joyful, keep the faith and keep doing the little things that make a difference to those you love and those in need.

The Bevern Trust (https://beverntrust.org) are looking for three new potential Trustees with experience in Clinical, Commercial and the Law. Serving as a Trustee to BV is a real privilege which can and does make a real difference to the lives our residents, and the future vision of Bevern View.

If you think this might be you, or you know someone who might be suitable, please contact Nick Houston the Chair of Trustees at nick.houston@beverntrust.org, or call our Operations Manager Alice Fry 01273 400752 for a confidential conversation.

At St Mary’s, we welcome all gifts in wills, however large or small and we promise to use your gift to make a difference to our parish. Our PCC Legacy Policy is to use gifts to help fund significant development projects, whether buildings, families and youth work, equipment, or staff, and to sustain the future of our beautiful church and churchyard.

Since needs change over the years, we encourage you to leave a gift in your will for the general purposes of the parish rather than for a restricted purpose. We will discuss possible uses of your gift with your executors when the time comes, bearing in mind your known areas of interest in the church (e.g., children and youth, churchyard, music, buildings, overseas mission, or aid) and the church’s priorities at the time.

You can be confident that your gift will be used to make a real difference to our future mission and ministry.

We acknowledge gifts in whatever way the donor or their executors feel most appropriate to. Equally, we can make sure that gifts remain anonymous if the donor prefers.

If you would like to talk to someone in confidence about the sorts of purposes your gift might fund, and how/if you would like your gift to be acknowledged, please contact our Churchwarden’s by contacting Christopher Hume on 07770 771653 or email Sara Fuller churchwarden.newickstmarys@gmail.com

If you would like to make a gift to our church in memoriam, please come and discuss this with us too.
It can be a wonderful and appropriate way to remember a loved one.

More details are available in our Legacy Leaflets available at the back of Church.
Please remember those on our prayer list:

Prayer requests from Katy Barnwell for July 2023

1. Thank the Lord for answering our prayer for better internet connections and power supply for the Mbembe translation teams. Internet connection has been better these past few weeks, though still with much room for improvement. Keep praying!
2. Some new equipment is needed by all three teams, including printers and battery chargers. Pray that the right equipment can be located and purchased, and that the necessary finances (already budgeted) will be available.
3. Rejoice with Ernest and Rita Ebak over the safe arrival of their second child, a baby son.
4. John Afro had to spend several days in the hospital in Calabar for ongoing treatment. Healing of his damaged hip is continuing, for which he is very thankful.
5. Translation work continues, including drafting, team checking, community testing and consultant checking over Zoom. The Mbembe-Okohm and Mbembe-Osopong teams are drafting and team checking Joshua and Judges. The Mbembe-Âdun team are checking 1 and 2 Kings, and revising the 1985 translation of the Gospel of Matthew.

Thank you for praying! Love and blessings,

Resilience in Clay: A Tapestry of Artistic Connection at Chichester Cathedral

Step into the captivating world of Resilience in Clay, our summer exhibition open until 31st August, which celebrates community and human connection.

This thought-provoking showcase of sculptural portraits is accompanied by a series of engaging events designed to ignite the imagination and foster a sense of unity within our community. From immersive talks and artist tours, to inspiring workshops and family drop-in sessions, each event promises a creative and enjoyable experience.

Artist Talks and Tours
On 8th July at 2:00 PM and 12th July at 10:30 AM, artist Kate Viner will be taking participants on an exclusive tour of Resilience in Clay with two Artist Tour & Q&A sessions. Find out more about the exhibition's genesis, development and creative process, plus discover some of the stories behind the sculptures, the inspirations that sparked their creation, and gain a deeper appreciation for the resilience and human experiences they embody. At the end of each tour, Kate will also be holding a special Q&A session. Tickets are priced at £5.00 per person, and booking is essential.

Artistic Exploration for Families
Aimed at families wanting to explore, play and discover their artistic talents, Making Faces is a free drop-in workshop led by Kate Viner. Taking place on Friday 11th August between 11.00am and 2.00pm, the workshop will encourage you to set your imagination free and create stunning masterpieces inspired by Kate's sculptures and the fascinating faces found throughout the Cathedral. No prior experience is needed; simply bring your enthusiasm and curiosity. No booking required.

Also for our younger visitors, we have the Resilience in Clay Children's Trail. This engaging trail encourages children to seek out the hidden faces and expressions that adorn the ancient walls of our Cathedral. Each face tells a unique story, from the 12th-century Romanesque Reliefs to the 21st-century mosaic of St. Dominic. Running until 31 August, pick up a free trail on arrival.

Time is running out as it takes several months to put together.

Thank you!
As a Church, we support our community helping individuals and families in Newick. We welcome gifts of food and household products. Please put them in the collection box in the Porch on Sundays. Every little helps, so if you can add a little to your weekly shop and make a donation it will help and be greatly appreciated.

We are receiving requests from deserving people for some special items to cope with allergy requirements and so on. We shall be grateful for any contribution you can make to help with this, so we shall put a money box in the usual collection box.

Intergenerational opera projects needing support in your community.

An exciting Intergenerational music project is growing a great fan base in schools and care homes across East Sussex. Co-founded by two professional opera singers, Intergenerational Opera works with freelance professional singers and accompanists who create and lead music sessions for two diverse age groups. The project works by organising Key stage 1 and 2 children from primary schools to work alongside local over 65’s and care home residents to deliver a 6 week project which aims to combat loneliness and aid communication in our communities through creative music-making.

Taking place at the same venue each week, participants learn music and enjoy games, singing and creative composition together in fun and engaging workshops. The project culminates in a performance of the participants own opera for family and carers during the final session.

Their newest plans include intergenerational choirs which will be starting this September and Baby and Mum music groups in retirement homes - developing their intergenerational ideas even further! Co-founder Charlotte Wicks comments: ‘Society already acknowledges the scientifically proven research that supports the power of music therapy for people living with Alzheimer’s Disease and Dementia. Our project takes this idea further to help increase social skills, build confidence and enhance overall wellbeing for both adults and children through creative music making. We also hope that the relationships formed between these two diverse age groups will have a far reaching positive impact on the community as a whole.’

Intergenerational Opera are seeking funding to continue their important work. In order that the project remains affordable for participants and schools, each project is now running at a deficit due to diminished funds. This means that the highly skilled workshop leaders and professional musicians are giving their time and expertise for free.

Charlotte adds ‘With over 10 projects booked for the next academic year we are concerned that without immediate help we will not be able to continue to bring these valuable projects to the community’

The project aims include:

• Reconnect with your community through the joy of music making
• Encourage intergenerational friendships within our communities
• Increase social skills, build confidence and enhance overall general wellbeing
• Bringing opera to a wider audience and introducing children to a new musical genre
• To compliment the primary music curriculum, providing the foundations of musical terminology and performance practices.
• To support the broader demands of the curriculum, we include a focus on creative writing, literacy and language skills.
• We will use music to bring together two extreme age groups of society to build a bridge that will create and sustain important social relationships.

With communities reconnecting it’s important that we encourage older people in the community to get involved with local events especially those that can have such a positive impact on their well being. Finally, it would be fantastic to have the support of Newick and Chailey community for any help they can provide - whether that be through school contacts, care home recommendations, local businesses that offer sponsorship, help with fundraising initiatives or publicising the project.

Our next fundraising opera galas - featuring professional opera singers from ENO, Glyndebourne and the Royal Opera House, will be on Saturday 5th August at 7:30 p.m. at St Mary’s the Virgin, Ringmer and on Sunday 13th August 7:30 p.m. at St Mary’s Church.
